HUMBLE APOLOGY

We of the Memento staff acknowledge the fact that we may have hurt someone's feelings this year in our excellent attempts at humor. Because of circumstances beyond our control, we no doubt chopped down some personalities or groups more than others. Therefore, since we believe in equality in all that we do, we would like to apologize to everyone whom we failed to cut down sufficiently. If we missed you, it's simply because you blend in with the walls so well.

MOTTO

WE STRIVE NOT TO EQUAL BUT TO EXCEL

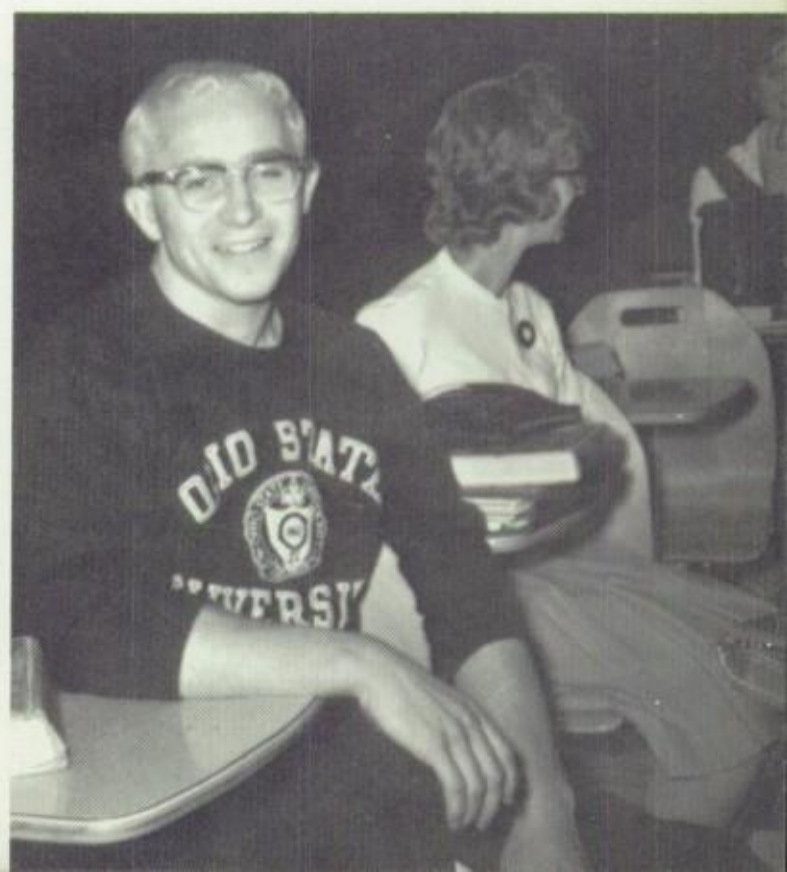

SPONSOR

MRS. MARTHA ENSIGN

GOLDEN BOY!

We, the Senior Class of 1962-63, being of dubious and doubtful minds hereby will and bequeath our outstanding and not so brilliant characteristics to all who follow in our unsteady footsteps.

To the Juniors, we will our quiet and orderly Senior homeroom.

To the Sophomores, we will our hard-working and ever-faithful class sponsor, Mrs. Ensign.

To the Freshmen, we will our ability to struggle and finally reach our goal.

I, Ken Agner, will my wolf whistle to Connie Wells so she can get all the boys she wants.

I, Linda Arrington, hereby will my short skirts to Virginia Collingwood so she won't have to bother shortening them.

I, Bob Beck, will all of my French papers to anyone in the first year class who has trouble getting A's under Mrs. Warnock.

I, Candy Breece, will my permanent "noon" seat in the rear of the study hall to anyone in the interest of true love.

I, Don Buchanan, will my ability to drive through a "Dead End" to Jane Edie, provided she learns to drive first.

I, Bob Buchanan, will my two front teeth to Terry Berger. Remember, Terry, you might need them someday.

I, Shirley Challen, will all my pairs of tennis shoes with holes in the right shoe to anyone who has tennis shoes with holes in the left shoe, so he'll have at least one good holey pair for school.

I, Dick Davis, will to Dan Haley all my explosive formulas so that he can blow off another finger.

I, Marjorie Deerwester, will my ability to talk constantly in study halls to Donna Mae Winkle so that she can get away with it as well as I did.

I, Connie DeWeese, will my ability to keep my silence to Connie Trumpy, provided she makes good use of it.

I, Jean DeWeese, will my "homecoming kiss" to Nancy Ingold.

I, Ron DeWeese, will my scooter to Pamela Little so she can peddle her newspapers.

I, Henry Farquharson, will my size 12 football shoes to Bill Caton, but remember, Bill, --grow! grow! grow!

I, Dave Foltz, will my big brown eyes to Mr. Martens so he can dazzle the girls in gym class.

I, Gary Franks, will my athletic ability to Mary Hermon. Remember, Mary, there are more ways to a boy's heart than through his stomach.

I, Karen Funk, will my long eyelashes to Peggy Krebs, provided she puts them to good use.

I, Janice Gangle, hereby will all the chewing gum in school to Mrs. Warnock so she can keep it under lock and key.

I, Ron Haas, will my quietness in study hall to Terry Berger--he needs it.

I, Bob Haley, will my success with girls to Donnie Clinger because he is going to need it.

I, Donna Franks Hill, will my "54" Olds to Eddie Routson so he won't have to worry about having a car for his dates.

I, Linda Hilty, will my quietness to Connie Spoor. Remember, Connie, silence is golden.

I, Ron Holladay, bequeath my excessive humor to the cliques.

I, Barbara Inbody, bequeath all my big clothes that I used to wear to Mrs. Gilliland.

I, Tom Johnston, bequeath my running feud with the school patrol to Mr. Ensign. Of course, in order to carry on this tradition, he'll have to start walking to school.

I, Jim Larcom, will my basketball skill to Mr. Jones, so he can have as much fun sitting on the bench as I did.

I, Martha Leatherman, will my typing ability to Chuck Dietrich. Remember, keep alert and set up straight.

I, Roger Lenhart, will my walk to Peggy Krebs so she can slow down.

I, Judy McCullough, hereby will my ability to wrap the goal posts to Kay Latta, provided she can walk the cross bar without falling off.

I, Larry McMaster, will my garage to Madelyn Shrewsbury so that she'll have her needed privacy.

I, Duane Miller, will my little curls to Dick Weaver, provided he uses Lilt Home Permanents.

I, Phillip Moorhead, will my ability to make the worst smelling, most dangerous chemicals in Chemistry Lab to Mr. Hassen and Mr. Smith, provided that they uphold my tradition of letting the odors into ventilation system.

I, Elaine Moser, hereby will my long hair to Florence Kline if she promises to keep it long and curled.

I, Bob Nutter, will my height & weight to Glenn Herringshaw.

I, Linda Parker, will my ability to stay calm in all situations to Mr. Lucas (If he uses it, everyone, won't study hall be heaven)

I, Arthur Payne, will my ten minute lunch period to Connie Crego. Remember, Connie, you're not supposed to eat so much in ten minutes.

I, John Pitney, will my skill with a gun to my brother Tom. Sorry, kids, we want to keep it in the family.

I, Robin Rader, will my quiet disposition to anyone who needs it.

I, Marilyn Rider, will my ability to get good grades in difficult subjects to Jim Courtney. Study means work not play.

I, John Rinehart, will my short hair to Dan Like so he won't have the problem of a two dab man."

I, Ron Routson, will my ability to study as little as possible to any underclassman who doesn't want to succeed.

I, Pat Sharninghouse, will my ability to speak softly to the Freshman girls. Wouldn't rooms 208, 211, and 212 be quiet at noon?

I, Laura Shoop, hereby will my place in the TOPS CLUB to Anna Mae Newell to help her solve her overweight problem.

I, Shirley Smith, will all my headaches and problems as editor of the Yearbook to Rose Ellen Orwick, provided she doesn't get too hot under the collar.

I, Martha Steiner, will my ability not to go steady to all girls. Remember it's not who you've caught but what you've got that counts.

I, Margaret Stoepfel, will my "ever ready, always active" smile to Mr. Bixel to be used at all times in next year's senior homeroom. At ALL times, Mr. Bixel.

I, Robert Tatham, will my ability as a good driver to Fred Kline, provided Fred doesn't roll the car on New Year's Eve.

I, Bob Thomas, will my freckles and my ability to blush to Madelyn Arrington. The freckles aid in covering the red.

I, Mary Torres, will my diamond ring to Kay Ewing, provided she doesn't get married before she graduates.

I, Martha Varner, will my ability to lose weight to Nancy Blair.

I, Ron Volland, will my ability to join and quit band to Mr. Detamore, provided he doesn't mess up my good record.

I, Carol Wright, will my deceptions ability in the art of deceptions to Fred Kline. It's lots of fun, Fred.

We, the Senior Class of 1963, do hereby declare this to be our Last Will and Testament.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I, Bob Beck, do hereby sign my name on this twenty-seventh day of May, 1963.

The Senior Class

by Bob Beck President

This certifies that the above named Bob Beck did on the day and year aforesaid appear before us, and being of sound mind at the said time did declare the same to be the Last Will and Testament of the 1963 Senior Class.
